ard's example, also parked the ball, wiping the sacks as clean as a school boy's morning face.

That made the Hebs mad—mad clean through. In their half, just to show that they were in the game and were going to make it a battle, they counted twice, which was all very well as far as it went, putting the locals witanin reaching distance. But, as has already been hinted, it was Grover's bad day. He breezed through the second all right without any damage, though two bingles were grabbed by those omivorous Pennsylvanians. It was the fourth which spelled doom to Goshorn and caused the boist to be put into play, Just four circuit swats were brought into play, though out of sheer justice it should be remarked in passing that only three were yielded by the boy who was soon to go to the clubhouse. With just one down, of Tom, hadn't quite outgrown the habit, so he belted one out of the lot. After that there was no more scoring for the visitors. Heggarty showed what he had, and until the ninth, when he was yanked in order a let McAleese bat, he had the heavy stickers well in hand. Bill Taylor, who was sent in cold in the tenth, managed to fan three,

With the count $ to 2 against them.

With the count 8 to 2 against them the Rebs started to come from under it took some time, for the brace of runs in the first angered Milman, and he tightened until the sixth, when a
